THE SENTIMENT IN CANADA

President Kruger Protests to American-European Intervention Not Likely.

London, Dec. 22.—There is still no word from the military authorities regarding the military situation in South Africa. Probably because the only cable that is working is choked with actual news.

The British military situation at Colenso, as published shows that the British lost 100 men and 100 wounded. Two hundred and twenty-seven are described as missing, and of these about forty are believed to be prisoners in the hands of the Boers. This makes a total figure of 400, the British military situation.

Perhaps Your Trouble Is Chronic Kidney Disease.

Often Difficult to Determine and Likely to Deserve the Best Physician.

There are many different ways in which kidney trouble will show itself. Some of the most common are: backache, stiffness of the joints, general weakness, nervousness, indigestion, and a feeling of fullness in the back.

The kidneys are the great filters of the body. They remove all the waste products of the body and excrete them in the urine. If the kidneys are diseased, the waste products will accumulate in the body and cause all the symptoms mentioned above.

It is always best to consult a physician who is a specialist in kidney diseases. He will be able to determine the exact nature of the disease and prescribe the best treatment.

When you are suffering from any of the symptoms mentioned above, do not delay. Consult a physician at once. Early treatment is the key to a cure.

TO KEEP OUT MORMONS.

South Carolina Ask Legislation to Exclude Latter-day Saints.

Would Oppose Such State Under Power of Law, and Destroy Rights (Louis Liberty).

Charleston, S. C., Dec. 21.—(Morning Star.) There has been a movement on foot in South Carolina to exclude the Latter-day Saints from the state.

The movement is being carried on by a committee of the state legislature. They are asking for legislation to exclude the Latter-day Saints from the state.

The committee is claiming that the Latter-day Saints are a threat to the peace and stability of the state. They are asking for legislation to exclude them from the state.

The Latter-day Saints are a religious group that believes in the teachings of Joseph Smith. They are known for their polygamous practices.

The state of South Carolina has a long history of opposing the Latter-day Saints. They have been excluded from the state several times in the past.

The committee is hoping that the legislature will pass the legislation to exclude the Latter-day Saints from the state.

He will be necessary to fulfill his contract at the Grand Opera House for the next two weeks. All his engagements therefore for the entire season will be cancelled. No Christmas in Thibet.

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 22.—W. W. Simpson and A. W. Lagimodiere of the Christian and Missionary Alliance of New York arrived in Seattle on the Island Maru, from Thibet, having been there in August last. Mr. Simpson is the mission at Peking and was completely debilitated by arduous duties. He is now in charge, largely recuperating.

After three years' work not a single convert to Christianity has been secured. The Chinese government, seeing China's international troubles, are in absolute control and will make progress in the construction of Christianity.

RELIEVING MONEY stringency.

Secretary of the Treasury Says He is Doing All He Can Legitimately.

New York, December 22.—A dispatch to the Times from Washington quotes Secretary of the Treasury as saying: "The treasury has endeavored to relieve money stringency in the only way that it could do so legitimately. By offering to purchase bonds to anticipate interest due without loss of principal and to go without the income to be derived from the internal revenue as the money could become available through the depositaries. It has done that it seemed proper to do. Since it is offered to take up $2,000,000 of bonds, the crisis of bonds has advanced, and the money market has improved, many stocks have fallen and bonds have risen. The price of the bonds has risen from 100 to 102 1/2 per cent of the price."

Of the $2,000,000 of bonds the treasury offered to buy, $1,000,000 have been offered. The offer is still standing. We may get the other $1,000,000. It is a matter of time. The treasury will be relieved from treasury control and the money market will be improved. It is a matter of time. The treasury will be relieved from treasury control and the money market will be improved.

At a recent meeting, the price of bonds has advanced. They are now being offered to buy at 102 1/2 per cent of the price. When it has been offered to pay a price, will that price be advanced again? It is a matter of time. The treasury will be relieved from treasury control and the money market will be improved.
